

SECOND CIRCULAR

Dear researchers,
Dear colleagues and friends,

In August 22, 2016, we are holding the 3rd Natural Pigments Conference for South-East Asia (NP-SEA) 2016 in Malang, Indonesia. On behalf of the organizing committee, we are looking forward and pleased to have your presence and participation in the event. We do hope that the spirit of the 3rd NP-SEA is still remain, i.e. to bring together scientists, students, and industrial practitioners from different discipline and to provide a forum to present and discuss research works, exchange new ideas, exploit, and foster new collaboration in the application of natural pigments and its analytical technologies. With this letter, we would like to remind you on the information about the 3rd NP-SEA 2016.

The theme of the 3rd NP-SEA meeting is "Research and Development of Pigment-based Innovation and Technology". There will be four topics of discussion in this conference:

1. Exploration, determination and characterization of natural pigments
2. Pigments in daily live (food, health and fashion)
3. The role of natural pigments in developing agriculture
4. Analytical technologies (chromatography, spectroscopy and imaging)

In this meeting, we invite young and prominent scientists to be our Keynote and Plenary Speakers:

- Prof. Dr. Hugo Scheer* – Department 1-Botanik, Ludwig Maximilians Universitaet, Germany.
- Prof. Dr. Stefan Hörtensteiner, Institute of Plant Biology, University of Zurich, Switzerland.
- Prof. Philippe J. Blanc, University de Toulouse, France.
- Prof. Dr. Sherry A. Tanumihardjo, Professor of Nutritional Sciences, Director of Undergraduate Certificate in Global Health, University of Wisconsin-Madison, USA.
- Prof. Dr. Ocky Karna Radjasa, Marine Coral Reef Study, Diponegoro University, Indonesia.
- Assoc. Prof. Leenawaty Limantara, Universitas Pembangunan Jaya and Ma Chung Research Center for Photosynthetic Pigments, Universitas Ma Chung, Indonesia.
- Dr. Kustiariyah Tarman, Department of Aquatic Products Technology, Faculty of Fisheries & Marine Sciences, Bogor Agricultural University.

Paper and Poster topics are according to the field of the conference as mentioned in Scope of Conference. Template of Abstract and Poster in English could be downloaded at the website. Contributed paper and poster can be submitted online by e-mail to: npsea@machung.ac.id (See important dates below). All submitted papers and posters will be reviewed by Scientific Committee.
